How to get to the University

General information on public transportation for Corfu, Greece

Public transportation in Corfu is divided based on colour

- the (mostly) green coloured buses, also titled "ktel" or "iperastiko", link suburban/ interurban areas with the main town of Corfu, Kerkyra or "poli".
- the blue buses, titled "astiko", that although are titled as urban service, also service suburban areas.

Taxi service

Complete passenger transport services 24 hours a day. You can find a taxi in selected places day or night. You can also arrange an appointment for your transport from any place to any place that you wish by phone or completing a reservation form in the related websites.

Max price for one way transfer to/from Corfu Airport/Corfu Port/green bus terminal from/to almost everywhere in Corfu town should be 18-20 euros. Each taxi is licensed to carry up to 4 people, including children and their luggage. You can also request special services such as transportation for people with special needs, unattended children or VIP. The call for this appointment must be placed at least 24 hours previously.

Book your taxi on +30 26610 33811 or visit http://www.ctts.gr/

From the airport (Int'l code CFU)

The easiest and hassle free method is by taxi, as the distance to downtown Corfu is more than 3 kilometers.

From the port

The easiest and hassle free method is by taxi, should the destination is not the nearby Corfu Town and not much luggage is to be carried. In any case, the port authorities run a free of charge bus that carries boat passengers to the eastern-most part of the port that should make a walk to downtown Corfu less than 20 minutes (1.4 kilometers).

Access to the university

The department of history is located in the center of the city (72, Theotoki str., Corfu), which is directly accessible using public transportation. The airport and the port are within a 5 minute driving distance. Walking to the building from anywhere the Corfu Town is a pleasant maximum 10 minutes stroll.